

The Times-Dispatch Announces, Beginning November 3d, and Appearing Daily

The Best Woman's Page Brains and Money Can Produce---

Of Interest to Every Woman

Edited by Martha Westover

Martha Westover will edit this page for The Times-Dispatch, and her sole aim and purpose will be to fill every need and solve every problem for our women readers. The features we offer are by far the best printed by any newspaper anywhere. No trouble or expense is too great—nothing will be permitted to stand in the way of WIDENING THE SCOPE AND INFLUENCE OF THE TIMES-DISPATCH TO INCLUDE THE WOMAN'S SPHERE. The features here given are but a few, but they will give a fair idea of the top-notch quality of this page's attractions.

This page represents our best efforts to please, but we're open to suggestions and offer these prizes for best suggestion-letters:

First Prize $10 Second Prize $5 Third Prize $3 And Seven Prizes of $1 each

You, dear reader, can win one of these ten prizes by reading this page carefully and giving us the benefit of your judgment. All letters will be judged on their own merits, and the best ones will probably be published. Watch for the appearance of the "OF INTEREST TO WOMEN" Page; study it; talk to your friends about it; think it over, and write down your impressions. But remember—

NO LETTER TO CONTAIN MORE THAN 200 WORDS. CONTEST ENDS NOVEMBER 29.

Address: Martha Westover, The Times-Dispatch.

News of Petersburg

Petersburg Bureau.
6 Bollingbrook Street.
(Phone, 1455)
Petersburg, Va., October 29.

The congregation of Tabb Street Presbyterian Church will celebrate the centennial of the organization of the church on the third Sunday in November. The exercises will be of a very interesting character. The sermon in the morning will be preached by the Rev. R. P. Kerr, D. D., of Baltimore, and the sermon at night will be preached by the Rev. J. S. Foster, D. D., of Birmingham, Ala., both former pastors of the church. Tabb Street Church was the first Presbyterian Church organized in Petersburg, and Tabb Street has always been its home. The first edifice stood on the south side of Tabb Street, near the site of the present New Shirley Hotel. Following its destruction by fire a great many years ago the present handsome and imposing edifice was erected on the north side of the street, and nearly opposite the site of the old building. During its long history many able and brilliant divines filled its pulpit as pastors.

Other details have been arranged in connection with the centennial observance, embracing receptions and other features.

Fine Sales of Tobacco.

There were large sales of both bright and dark tobacco at the warehouses yesterday and to-day, and fine prices were realized. The opening of Petersburg as a market for bright tobacco has attracted buyers from a number of large outside concerns to the city, who will remain here during the season.

The bright grades brought from $25 to $32 per 100 pounds. Many of the piles sold bringing from $30 up to $40. The highest figures were given to J. B. Knott, of Dinwiddie County.

Married in Washington.

A telegram from Washington announced the marriage in that city yesterday of Miss Josephine Orgain, daughter of the late Judge Orgain, of Lunenburg County, to Richard M. Harrison, a prominent citizen of Dinwiddie. They will reside near Mechanicsville.

A Small Fire.

The department was called out about 8 o'clock this morning to extinguish a fire in one of the rooms of the frame dwelling on Grove Avenue, occupied by Mrs. J. P. Marshall. A mattress and bedstead were burned and some damage was done to the room, but the flames were confined to the apartment.

General News Notes.

The second degree was conferred on twelve candidates at the meeting to-night of Petersburg Council, Knights of Columbus. The work was conducted by the degree team of the Richmond Council.

Commissions were held yesterday on three colored persons suspected of being insane. They were all adjudged sane and were ordered committed to the Central State Hospital.

L. J. Allen, colored, one of the best known men of his race in the city, died yesterday, after about a week's illness. Mrs. Hempel, wife of Ensign Hempel, formerly in charge of the Salvation Army in this city, is ill in the Petersburg Hospital.

O. L. Levy, of Chesterfield County, was operated on at the Petersburg Hospital to-day for cataract.

NEWS OF SOUTH RICHMOND

WILL GIVE PLAY

Capable Cast to Present "Out in the Street" at Bazaar To-Night.

"Out in the Street," a temperance play, will be presented by a capable company to-night at 8:15 o'clock at the bazaar, which is being given by the women of Cowardin Avenue Christian Church in the Masonic Temple, at Twentieth and Hull Streets. Robert Adkins, who takes a blackface part, will be the leading man. The cast of characters includes nine amateurs, who have gained prominence in former productions. "Colonel Wayne," one of the principal personages in the play, will be represented by J. B. Long, and Miss Blanche Jeffries will take the part of "Miss Wayne."

A large crowd filled the temple last night, and enjoyed the recitals of Miss Virginia Johnson, an elocution teacher of Richmond. Music was rendered during the evening. The booths, in which many wares are offered for sale, were well patronized.

An interesting program especially arranged for the children will be given to-morrow night. On Saturday night the bazaar will close with a miscellaneous program of songs, recitations and speeches.

The City Circuit Court will meet at 10 o'clock next Monday morning for the regular November term. The docket was held and the cases set for trial. Court will be in session until January 1.

State Dairy and Food Commissioner W. D. Saunders is now in Chicago attending the annual National Dairy Show and exhibition of fat cattle. At the 1913 dairy show Virginia dairymen won signal honors.

Say He Annoyed Woman.

Patrolman "Eddie" Waymack has been acting as desk sergeant during Captain Lipscomb's absence. Owing to the illness of Sergeant Manning, who was confined to his home yesterday, Officer Waymack will continue as acting sergeant.

Had Right to Look.

Is it unlawful for a passerby in the street to glance into a citizen's window? On these grounds William Bell asserted yesterday in Police Court, Part II, that he was justified in cursing and abusing E. A. Nolte, who, he said, had on several occasions observed the actions of his family while passing his house. Justice Manigault thought differently, and put Bell under a $250 bond to keep the peace.

Sells Factory Sites.

Henry S. Waltherstein and wife yesterday sold to the United States Land Investment Corporation, 394 feet of property fronting on the western side of Hull Street, between Second and Third Streets, for a consideration of $10,000, according to a deed of bargain and sale recorded with Clerk Walter E. DuVal in Hustings Court, Part II. It is understood that the land will be subdivided and sold for factory sites.

Interfered With Officer.

Patterson House, a negro woman, was fined $10 by Justice Manigault yesterday morning in Police Court, Part II, on the charge of interfering with Patrolman George Blankenship, when he went to make a levy on her house, on Maury Street. The woman noted an appeal, and the case will be tried in Hustings Court, Part II, on November 17.

Commission Files Report.

The condemnation commission recently appointed to assess land values on Cowardin Avenue for the purpose of widening the street has filed its report with Clerk Walter E. DuVal in Hustings Court, Part II. The commissioners were discharged yesterday. Cowardin Avenue will be widened seventeen feet, from Hull Street to Sommes Avenue. In order to do this much property will have to be acquired. Damages were fixed by the commission according to the location of the land and the expense in moving and putting abutting residences on new sites.

Halloween Party.

For the benefit of the Young People's Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church, a Halloween party will be held to-morrow night in the home of Mrs. Meredith Owens, 1005 Decatur Street. An interesting program has been arranged, in which the spoons and goblins will appear. A silver offering will be taken at the door.

For Building Fund.

An unique Halloween entertainment will be given in the Woodland Heights Baptist Church on Friday night, when "pigs will be slaughtered." The Women's Aid Society is giving the benefit, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the church building fund. A called meeting of the congregation will be held Sunday morning to discuss plans for the new building.
